

Introducing SIDDUR KABBALAT SHABBAT

A new prayer book for Beth El Friday Night Live!

Thanks to the generosity of our wonderful Sisterhood who supports many Beth El programs and projects we now have a new Siddur for our Kabbalat Shabbat/ Friday Night Live! service. This new and vibrant prayer book combines traditional Hebrew text with modern translations, inspirational readings and is fully transliterated allowing for all worshippers to participate actively in prayer. The meditations throughout this siddur help to enhance the prayer experience for all who use it.

Say mazel tov to someone in our community, honor a family member or friend, recognize a special birthday or anniversary, memorialize a loved one...Dedicate a siddur.

Each prayer book dedication is $36.00. Please fill in the form below indicating the # of prayer books and appropriate names. Drop off or mail to Beth El, 222 Irvington Ave., So. Orange, NJ 07079. Please use other side or make copies of this form if you have more names.

____ new Siddur(im):

in memory of honor of _____

Dedicated by _____

____ new Siddur(im):

in memory of honor of _____

Dedicated by _____

____ new Siddur(im):

in memory of honor of _____

Dedicated by _____

Total number of Siddurim to be dedicated x $36.00 ea. = $_____.

Payment enclosed check made payable to Congregation Beth El.

Name _____ email: _____

Address: _____ City _____ Zip _____

Phone (H) _____ (W) _____ (cell) _____

Congregation Beth El

Preserving Tradition...Embracing Change.

222 Irvington Avenue, South Orange, NJ 07079 • 973-763-0111
Francine Roston, Rabbi • Perry Fine, Cantor • Jehiel Orenstein, Rabbi Emeritus